

Gunner William Cooper
Royal Field Artillery
Killed in action aged 25 years

GUNNER WILLIAM COOPER,
Parsons Lane, Bury.

Mr and Mrs Cooper of 41 Parsons Lane, Bury, have received official intimation that their son Gunner William Cooper, Royal Field Artillery, has been killed in action. Gunner Cooper, who was 25 years of age, was formerly employed at the Crown Brewery, Bury. He was an enthusiastic footballer and had received many league medals while playing with Bank Street Unitarians and St Stephens Football Clubs. His name is on the roll of honour at Bank Street Unitarian Church, Bury Parish Church and St Stephens Church.