Minister's Month

March has been a month of special services beginning with a short service followed by a discussion on the question of having same sex partnerships ceremonies in the church. After a good discussion the congregation were invited to vote on the matter and we await the outcome. The following Sunday we were delighted to welcome new members to the congregation. Of course they were well known to us having attended for some time. One new member was very well known indeed. John was welcomed as an honorary member of the congregation in recognition of his many years of service to the church. He was presented with a certificate to mark the occasion and he was surprised and delighted by this gesture from the congregation. There was however much laughter when Anne 'welcomed' him after almost forty years at Bury. Then breathlessly we carried on the celebrations at the Mothering Sunday service. Simnel, posies and a touch of Bailey's for everyone, excellent readers, the choir in good voice and a diamond wedding made it a very special occasion.

This month, with a new computer sitting on my desk, I have been going into battle each day to master its seemingly endless capabilities. This has meant that the study has been no place for the faint hearted. It even tells me off when I sit too near the screen!

A small committee has been working on two publicity leaflets and has met a number of times and spent many hours, over cups of tea and chocolate biscuits, in tortured discussion about what and how and if. Text has been revised and revised until finally with all the i's dotted and t's crossed we felt we could do no more. Computer permitting the leaflets should soon be on the stand in the foyer

Business at the AGM was as always efficiently dealt with in just over an hour. Sadly, there were no nominations for the post of church Secretary, who is essential for administering church business, meaning other officers will have to take on more work. Can you help?

Now off to the Lake District for three days before returning for the NE-LUM AGM on Saturday. Beryl having a fish and chip lunch to celebrate. See the notice board for details.

Lunch must be booked and paid for in advance.

TRAIDCRAFT

The stall will be open on April 1st, April 15th and April 29th.

On March 4th, we enjoyed a tasting of Fair Trade foods: chocolate short-bread fingers, oatly flapjacks, chocolate and Geobars. This was our celebration of Fair Trade Fortnight and was generously funded by The Co-op.

Earlier in Fair Trade Fortnight, on February 28th, June Seddon and I manned a stall, on behalf of Bury's Fair Trade Steering Committee, outside the restaurant-entrance at Fairfield Hospital; we handed out free samples of sweets, chocolate, fruit cake and Geobars, and were pleased to note a high level of interest in Fair Trade amongst our customers---which made this a worthwhile venture.

DISCUSSION OF GA AGM MOTIONS

On Sunday, April 1st, after the service, starting at 12.30 pm, we shall be discussing the Motions for this year's General Assembly Annual General Meetings, in order to give guidance on these issues to our delegates, Betty and Molly.

The Motions themselves, and the background information to them, will be available, in the lounge, prior to April 1st. We are hoping that, on this occasion, coffee and biscuits will be available from a trolley at the back of the church. If you intend to stay for the discussion, please collect your coffee and then take a seat, in the worship-area, so that a prompt start may be made.

VESTS FOR FISH AND CHIP BABIES

Many of us have been busy knitting vests in a great variety of colours, and the response has been very pleasing. We hope to have produced a goodly number of vests by April 1st; please bring all completed garments to church by this date, at the latest, and give them to Anne Mills. All our vests will then be sent to the Loving Hands Foundation, in Fife, whence they will be forwarded and distributed to the African countries which most need them.

We intend to display all our vests, before they are sent off, and to hold a Fish and Chip Lunch to celebrate the end of our initiative. This will take place on Wednesday, April 18th, at 12 noon; please make a note of the date in your diary; further details will be available, nearer the time, via pulpit-announcements and notices in the lounge.

MEMORIES OF MOTHERING SUNDAY

Many thanks to Beryl for making the splendid posies which the children presented to everyone in the congregation; the daffodils looked bright and cheerful in the springtime sunshine and enhanced an excellent service. Thanks, also, to June and the members of the Junior Church for baking a tasty, traditional Simnel cake, which we all enjoyed with our coffee.

Barbara and Joe Ashworth were due to celebrate their Diamond Wedding Anniversary on March 22nd and provided the coffee; congratulations to them both on reaching this very special milestone.

CONGREGATIONAL AGM 19.03.12

Forty people attended our AGM; at the meeting, the following were elected unanimously:

Anne Mills---Chairman of the Congregation, and of the Council;
Betty Kenyon---Vice-Chairman;
John Fitzpatrick---Treasurer;
Freda Worthington---Assistant Treasurer;
Council Members, to serve for 3 years: Robin Ainsworth, June Clarke, Margaret Fitzpatrick and Roger Mills;
Council member, to serve for 2 years: Edna Wilkinson;
Council members, to serve for 1 year: Margaret Miller and Peter Whewell.

All those who retired from Council were thanked for their efforts: Harry Taylor, Sheila Houghton, Betty Kenyon, Janet Thatcher and Roy Wilkinson.

No nominations were received for the post of Church Secretary, or for NELUM Delegates; we are urgently in need of volunteers to fill these positions; if you can help, even if in a limited way, please speak to Anne Mills or Beryl Allerton.

A full copy of the AGM Minutes will be posted on the lounge notice-board shortly.

CHARITY COLLECTING BOXES

Colin Smith is happy to relieve collectors of the money from their Samaritans collecting boxes; please bring boxes, or money, to church, as soon as possible.
